Church Address Book

We are intending to get the Congregational Address Book up and running again, but to comply with GDPR we need to get specific agreement from everyone who wishes to be in the new address book, even if they were in the old one. In the next few days we shall be contacting people in the address book by email to allow them to check their details and give renewed consent. For those not on email, or not currently in the address book, please speak to Simon Dysdale or Craig Murray. If we have not heard from you by 30th April, you will be deleted from the address book.

Vacancy :Praying about the next step

Our call to Rev Calum MacMillan, with a note of our reasons, has been sent to the Northern Presbytery, who will consider it on 26th March. At that meeting a delegation from Kilmallie and Ardnamurchan will be invited to state why we want to call Calum, and the Rosskeen Kirk Session will be invited to say why they want to keep him. Normally the Presbytery would then place the call in Calum's hands and invite him to respond.

It would be surprising, but possible, for the Presbytery not to put the call in Calum's hands on the grounds that his leaving Rosskeen would be seriously detrimental, if that step were taken we have the right of appeal.

Church Night - Tuesday 7.30 pm

Please make Church Night a priority in your week as together we continue the search for a new minister by studying the Bible and praying together for God's provision, wisdom & guidance.

26 March - Church Night Prayer - The focus for the evening will be on the call to Rev Calum MacMillan at the Northern Presbytery meeting.

2 April - Church Night -Geoff Thomas from Mission Aviation Fellowship (MAF) will be talking about the work of Mission Aviation Fellowship.

Pastoral Care

Please notify one of the Elders or Deacons if you know of anyone who is ill or who could benefit from a visit.

It would help with the administration if all content for the bulletin could be sent to office@kilmallie.freechurch.org by Thursday afternoon
